

Sir,

Prior to the "Do Not Call List" we would receive nearly a dozen calls daily as late as 9:30 PM. Being retired it is very upsetting to be woke during a afternoon nap only to have someone try to sell me something. Calls during meals are standard. Retired life is so much better without our telephone ringing at all hours. Keep it in place as is.....